

WOMEN FARMERS TO HAVE SUPERVISOR

Lenox Garden Club Gives $1,000 to Promote Work at Alford.

ARRIVALS IN THE HILLS

Several New Yorkers Among Guests at Hotels in Berkshires.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

Lenox, June 20.—The Lenox Garden Club has appropriated $1,000 toward the expenses of a supervisor for a colony of women land workers to be stationed near Alford in the Berkshires.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Becker of Washington, who arrived at Lenox this week, have Capt. S. C. Reed, U. S. A., as their guest.

Miss Emily Biddle has returned from Philadelphia to her country place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ingham, Mayor of New York are at the Smith cottage, Yale.

Mrs. Thomas Sturge has gone to Newport after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Sturge. Mrs. William Sands is now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sturge.

Mrs. J. E. Alexander, who is in New York, will return to-day to her country place, where she will be with her guests, Sir Joseph and Lady White of London.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Carey, Jr., and Mrs. Sophia Carey of Baltimore, who have been stopping at the Curtis Hotel, are to-day to Gloucester, Mass., where they have a country place.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Wing have returned from Lenox, where they were with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kelsey and party from Orange, N. J., arrived at Hotel Alford.

Harry Bewick of Atlanta is stopping with Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed.

Mrs. Louise M. Iselin has gone to New York from the Red Lion Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Sowell, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Skinner, Miss W. H. Johnston and Mrs. Frances Lowell of New York are at the Red Lion Inn, Stockbridge.

John Slade, Jr., and Donald Cruise of New York are guests of Amory Mellen at Stockbridge.

JUSSERANDS ENTERTAIN.

Secretary and Mrs. Lansing Among Notable Dinner Guests.

Special Despatch to The Sun.—Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall have returned from a short trip to Indianapolis. The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand were at the Curtis Hotel last evening, their guests including Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, the Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Ishii, the French Ambassador to Japan, Mr. Deland, Assistant Secretary of State Phillips, Prof. Bergson of Paris, M. and Mme. De Blampignon of the French navy, Commander Graziar of the French army, Major and Mrs. Grinnell, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Simmons, M. and Mme. De Le Chartier and the Second Secretary of the Embassy and Mme. De Laboulaye.

Mrs. Charles Brownell entertained at this evening's dinner party and Mrs. Brownell's house guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee and Miss Ellen B. Lee.

Mrs. Hattie Elkins Davis had luncheon to-day with young ladies who will attend her at her wedding Saturday.

HOT SPRINGS ACTIVITIES.

Bath Rites to Receive Machine Gun as a Gift.

Special Despatch to The Sun.—Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, of New York, arrived from New York and opened Barton Lodge for the summer. Mr. Ulman was on the golf course to-day with his son, who is taking instruction in the rudiments of the game.

Mrs. J. J. Cavanaugh and her daughter, Ruth and Mona, came from New York this morning and are at the Home where Mrs. Cavanaugh has registered for the cure.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Williams of New Orleans and their daughter are here to attend to the funeral.

Edgar Park, head of the Marlins Arms Company, has ordered a machine gun sent here as a present to the Bath House, a company of State militia which is here.

MARRIED.

DE-MOTTE—At noon, on Thursday, June 20, at 27 Washington Square, N. Y., by the Rev. Peter Sticker, Grant Street Church, the Rev. Henry H. W. de Motte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Field de Motte.

BOND—On Wednesday, June 19, at Grace Church, Broadway, between Broadway and Tenth Street, New York, by the Rev. Stanley Brown-Serman, rector of Zion Church, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., assisted by the Rev. Charles L. Statter, D. D., rector of Grace Church, New York, Miss Valentine Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bond of Baltimore, Md., and William Edgar, Lieutenant-Forty-third Infantry, U. S. A., of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.

LANE-BALDWIN—On Wednesday, June 19, at the American Church, Florence, N. Y., by the Rev. Henry H. W. de Motte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Field de Motte.

THAYER—On Thursday, June 20, at the American Church, Florence, N. Y., by the Rev. Henry H. W. de Motte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Field de Motte.

DIED.

CALDWELL—On June 20, Major Eugene Wilson Caldwell, 36 D. C. A. Service, "THE FUNERAL CHURCH," Broadway, 6th St. (Campbell Bldg.), at the residence of his wife, Mrs. Caldwell.

KNAPP—On June 19, Martha Covington, beloved wife of the late John Edward Knapp of East Orange, N. J., died at the Tenth Street Hotel, New York, at the residence of her son, Mr. Knapp, at 1100 Broadway, New York.

MORTIMER—In France, May 22, 1918, Lieut. Richard Mortimer, Jr., killed in action.

A memorial service will be held at St. Mary's Church, Tuxedo Park, N. Y., on Saturday, June 22, 1918, at 11 o'clock, for the late Lieut. Richard Mortimer, Jr., of Jersey City, at 9:15 A. M.

MOTT—Suddenly, on Wednesday, June 19, 1918, Valentine Mott, M. D., beloved husband of Mrs. Mott, died at his residence, 24 East Eighty-fourth Street, in the sixty-sixth year of his age.

Funeral services at the Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue and Tenth Street, on Friday, June 21, at 10 A. M.

QUIRK—On Thursday, June 20, 1918, at Southfield, N. Y., Thomas M. Quirk, in the eighty-first year of his age.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of Lindsay M. Stevens, Period Lane, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Saturday afternoon, 2 P. M. Carriages will meet at 9:40 A. M. Train from Grand Central Station, New York.

RAND—On Wednesday, June 19, at the residence of George Rand, son of the late George Rand and Eugenia B. Rand, in the forty-seventh year of his age. Notice of funeral hereafter.

CHAS. DANA GIBSON PLEADS FOR POSTER

Tells Artists They Must Think of Winning War, Not of War's Effect on Art.

PICTURES HELP WORKERS

Salmagundi Club Hears How Shipbuilding Is Speeded by Vital Drawings.

WEDDING IN BROOKLYNE

Miss Hilda de Costa Bride of J. Jorge de Paris.

Special Despatch to The Sun.—Borow, June 20.—Miss Hilda de Costa and J. Jorge de Paris were united in marriage to-day at St. Mary's Church, the Rev. Father McManus officiating. The bride was Miss Hilda de Costa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvaro Gil de Almeida, uncle of the bride, who is Brazilian Consul in Boston, was master of ceremonies. The church was decked with flowers.

Mrs. Henry W. Peabody is again at her summer home, Ledgewood, at Montclair Heights, Beverly, coming from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Peabody, who attended a missionary convention. Mrs. Peabody has been active in missionary and temperance work and is interested in the work of the National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness.

Mrs. Thomas Sturge has gone to Newport after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Sturge. Mrs. William Sands is now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sturge.

Mrs. J. E. Alexander, who is in New York, will return to-day to her country place, where she will be with her guests, Sir Joseph and Lady White of London.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Carey, Jr., and Mrs. Sophia Carey of Baltimore, who have been stopping at the Curtis Hotel, are to-day to Gloucester, Mass., where they have a country place.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Wing have returned from Lenox, where they were with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kelsey and party from Orange, N. J., arrived at Hotel Alford.

Harry Bewick of Atlanta is stopping with Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed.

Mrs. Louise M. Iselin has gone to New York from the Red Lion Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Sowell, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Skinner, Miss W. H. Johnston and Mrs. Frances Lowell of New York are at the Red Lion Inn, Stockbridge.

John Slade, Jr., and Donald Cruise of New York are guests of Amory Mellen at Stockbridge.

ARRIVALS AT NEWPORT.

Mrs. Lewis S. Chandler Has Taken Rhadames Cottage for Summer.

Special Despatch to The Sun.—Newport, R. I., June 20.—Mrs. Corneilus Vanderbilt and her daughter are expected here the first week in July.

Mrs. Gordon Douglas will open her house within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry and the Misses Gerry will arrive from New York the first week of the month.

Mrs. Lewis S. Chandler of New York has arrived at the Rhadames cottage, which she has taken for the summer.

Hawthorne villa is being opened for Col. Howard A. Stevenson of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Layard will arrive before the end of the month.

Mrs. W. W. Tompkins and Mr. and Mrs. August Jay have opened their summer homes.

GALE—HORN.

Captain in Marine Corps Marries States Island Girl.

Special Despatch to The Sun.—Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

CHAS. DANA GIBSON PLEADS FOR POSTER

Tells Artists They Must Think of Winning War, Not of War's Effect on Art.

PICTURES HELP WORKERS

Salmagundi Club Hears How Shipbuilding Is Speeded by Vital Drawings.

WEDDING IN BROOKLYNE

Miss Hilda de Costa Bride of J. Jorge de Paris.

Special Despatch to The Sun.—Borow, June 20.—Miss Hilda de Costa and J. Jorge de Paris were united in marriage to-day at St. Mary's Church, the Rev. Father McManus officiating. The bride was Miss Hilda de Costa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvaro Gil de Almeida, uncle of the bride, who is Brazilian Consul in Boston, was master of ceremonies. The church was decked with flowers.

Mrs. Henry W. Peabody is again at her summer home, Ledgewood, at Montclair Heights, Beverly, coming from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Peabody, who attended a missionary convention. Mrs. Peabody has been active in missionary and temperance work and is interested in the work of the National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness.

Mrs. Thomas Sturge has gone to Newport after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Sturge. Mrs. William Sands is now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sturge.

Mrs. J. E. Alexander, who is in New York, will return to-day to her country place, where she will be with her guests, Sir Joseph and Lady White of London.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Carey, Jr., and Mrs. Sophia Carey of Baltimore, who have been stopping at the Curtis Hotel, are to-day to Gloucester, Mass., where they have a country place.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Wing have returned from Lenox, where they were with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kelsey and party from Orange, N. J., arrived at Hotel Alford.

Harry Bewick of Atlanta is stopping with Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed.

Mrs. Louise M. Iselin has gone to New York from the Red Lion Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Sowell, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Skinner, Miss W. H. Johnston and Mrs. Frances Lowell of New York are at the Red Lion Inn, Stockbridge.

John Slade, Jr., and Donald Cruise of New York are guests of Amory Mellen at Stockbridge.

ARRIVALS AT NEWPORT.

Mrs. Lewis S. Chandler Has Taken Rhadames Cottage for Summer.

Special Despatch to The Sun.—Newport, R. I., June 20.—Mrs. Corneilus Vanderbilt and her daughter are expected here the first week in July.

Mrs. Gordon Douglas will open her house within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry and the Misses Gerry will arrive from New York the first week of the month.

Mrs. Lewis S. Chandler of New York has arrived at the Rhadames cottage, which she has taken for the summer.

Hawthorne villa is being opened for Col. Howard A. Stevenson of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Layard will arrive before the end of the month.

Mrs. W. W. Tompkins and Mr. and Mrs. August Jay have opened their summer homes.

GALE—HORN.

Captain in Marine Corps Marries States Island Girl.

Special Despatch to The Sun.—Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was Miss Vivian Marie Horn, daughter of William Horn, commodore of the States Island Yacht Club, was married to Capt. Thomas Gale, United States Marine Corps, at the States Island Church, Tompkinsville, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. L. Wallis and was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the couple.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD

The marriage of Miss Mary Cady Sturges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cady Sturges of 114 East Thirty-fifth Street, to Capt. James Henry Fry, Jr., U. S. A., will take place to-morrow at the country home of the bride's parents in Fairfield, Conn. The wedding was originally planned for June 8, but was postponed on account of the illness of Miss Sturges.

The third of a series of four subscription musicales by the New York Choral Society, directed by Mr. Edmund Beebe director, will be given this afternoon at Hillbrook, the country home of Mrs. Seymour J. Hyde, Mrs. William C. Rockefeller, Mrs. Matthew Astor Wilks, Mrs. Edward T. Holmes, Mrs. Francis K. Brown, Mrs. Edmund C. Conover, Mrs. William Hamilton Childs, Mrs. Hugh J. Chisholm, Mrs. Nicholas F. Palmer and Mrs. William H. Day. The last of the series will be given on June 21 at Miraflores, the country home of Mrs. R. A. C. Smith in Greenwich.

A fair and tea will be given at Green-tree, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney, Manhattan, L. I., this afternoon, for the benefit of the Nassau County Babies Milk Fund and useful articles will be on sale as well as the stock children's garden hats, dresses, jam, and there will also be sports for children, with prizes.

Mrs. Henry Fairfield Osborn of 800 Madison Avenue and George N. Y. Y. will go to Chautauque, N. Y., on June 22, to speak before the Assembly of Free Milk for France, of which organization her daughter, Miss Josephine Osborn, is chairman.

A son was born to Lieut. and Mrs. George Platt Brett, Jr., last Wednesday at their home in Belmont, L. I. Mrs. Brett, before her marriage, was Miss Mary Platt Brett, born in August 18, 1917, was Miss Isabel Stevenson Yeomans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dallas Yeomans of this city and Plymouth, Mass.

A son was born to Lieut. and Mrs. George Platt Brett, Jr., last Wednesday at their home in Belmont, L. I. Mrs. Brett, before her marriage, was Miss Mary Platt Brett, born in August 18, 1917, was Miss Isabel Stevenson Yeomans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dallas Yeomans of this city and Plymouth, Mass.

A son was born to Lieut. and Mrs. George Platt Brett, Jr., last Wednesday at their home in Belmont, L. I. Mrs. Brett, before her marriage, was Miss Mary Platt Brett, born in August 18, 1917, was Miss Isabel Stevenson Yeomans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dallas Yeomans of this city and Plymouth, Mass.

A son was born to Lieut. and Mrs. George Platt Brett, Jr., last Wednesday at their home in Belmont, L. I. Mrs. Brett, before her marriage, was Miss Mary Platt Brett, born in August 18, 1917, was Miss Isabel Stevenson Yeomans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dallas